Bluestar

[image]

Bluestar is one of my favorite leaders! I see her as a short-furred blue-gray she~cat, with blue eyes and silver tinged around her muzzle, with a small silver mark on her chest.

Redtail

[image]

I know that he isn't that much of a mentioned character, but he still is a character so I'm going to put what I picture him as in here.

This was the closest picture I could find to what I think of him as. I do see him as a calico tabby tom with amber eyes. But I see him with longer fur and a bushy tail.

Spottedleaf

[image]

Spottedleaf is one of my favorite characters! Yes, I picture her as a calico and not a tortie. I belive her to be a long-furred, calico she~cat with green eyes.

Lionheart

[image]

Lionheart is possibly one of my favorite characters! He was so awesome! But then he died...weeps at least Tigerstar didn't kill him.

Anyway, this is the closest picture I could find. I imagine him as a big golden-yellow tom, with amber eyes and long neck and head fur like a lion. I don't imagine him as a tabby though.

Tigerstar

[image] [image]

I have a confession to make...I don't really have anything against Tigerstar. I mean, I know he can be annoying and he is one of the main antagonists of the series, but, I don't see how people can hate him so much. I don't personally like him, but I don't straight up hate him.

This was the closet picture I could find. I imagine him as a dark brown tabby tom, with medium-length fur, dark amber eyes and many battle scars. In the top pic, he doesn't have a tail, but I imagine him with a tail though.

Whitestorm

[image]

Whitestorm is a pretty cool cat! I was pretty sad when he died, but then, Graystripe became deputy so I was happy.

The picture is actually a spitting image of how I picture Whitestorm. I see him as a slender all white tom, with yellow eyes and short fur.

Darkstripe

[image]

I HATE Darkstripe SO MUCH! HE IS SO ANNOYING! HE IS JUST SUCH A NUISANCE! OH MY GOSH! WHY?! clears throat Alright, anyway, this is the picture I found of him.

I see him as a dark brownish gray tom, with amber eyes and medium length fur.

Longtail

[image] [image] [image]

Longtail is a pretty cool character. Not one of my favorites, but still pretty cool. I was so proud when he wouldn't join Tigerstar.

These are the closest pictures I could find. I see him as a pale yellowish tom, with black tabby stripes, green eyes and a long tail.

Runningwind

[image]

Runningwind was an okay cat. Not really one of my favorites but I liked him. When he died, it's almost like I didn't know he died. Like, it didn't register in my brain that he died. So, in the next book, I noticed that Runningwind wasn't in the allegiances. I was like "What? Maybe it's a typo or something?" Then when they mentioned he died, I was like "WHAT? When did he die?!" So yeah.

This was the picture I found. I know that he is supposed to be a brown tabby tom with amber eyes. This is how I imagined him when I first read the allegiances. I imagine him as a gray tabby tom with green eyes.

Willowpelt

[image] [image]

Willowpelt is a pretty cool cat. I'm kind of sad that when The New Prophecy arc started, they just said "Willowpelt died. The End." But yeah

That's mostly what I see her as. (Especially the top one) I see her as a light, almost white gray lithe she~cat with faint gray stripes barely visble and blue eyes.

Mousefur

[image] [image]

These were the closest pictures I could find. Mousefur is pretty cool, I'm surpised that she lived as long as she did. She was there from the first book, and she didn't die until the last book!

I see her as a small, wiry, light brown she~cat with short fur and yellow-amber eyes.

Dustpelt

[image]

When I first read the series, Dustpelt made me so mad! I was just like "When will he die?!" He was so annoying, but then as the series went on, and when Dustpelt didn't join Tigerstar, I was starting to like him.

I imagine him as a dusky light brown, short-furred tom, with yellow-green eyes and a barley visible tabby stripes.

♡Graystripe♡

[image]

GRAYSTRIPE IS ONE OF MY FAVORITE CHARACTERS! HE IS SO AMAZING! I LOVED HOW NO MATTER WHAT, HE WAS STILL FIRESTAR'S BEST FRIEND AND HE WAS ALSO THE FIRST WILD CAT THAT FIRESTAR (Rusty at the time) MET!

I imagine him as a gray tom with long fur, yellow eyes and a darker gray stripe running from his nose, along his back and to his tail-tip.

Ravenpaw

[image]

Ravenpaw is so awesome! I love his personality! I almost cried when the Clans had to leave the forest and they stopped and rested at Ravenpaw's barn. Firestar and Graystripe had to say bye to him forever and that was the last time they would see each other. It was so sad.

I imagine him as a black tom with short fur, a white mark on his chest and tail-tip and green eyes.

Sandstorm

[image]

Sandstorm is a pretty cool character! At first she had an attitude and pretty much hated Firestar for being a kittypet, but then they ended up being mates, having kits and Sandstorm grew up, becoming one of the most respected cats in the Clan. She is also known to be one of the best hunters in the Clan as well which is pretty awesome. (I also like the irony of her name)

I imagine her as a sand-colored she~cat with green eyes, short fur and faint tabby stripes.

Firestar

[image]

Firestar is the main character and is pretty cool. Kittypet turned ThunderClan leader, he has accomplished a lot in life. From exploiting Tigerstar's evil plan, saving SkyClan, saving Bluestar on more than one occasion, saving all of the Clans from BloodClan and just becoming leader even though he was a kittypet, proves why the Clans respect him.

I imagine him as a orange tom with green eyes, short fur and NO TABBY STRIPES.

(I know in the picture that he has tabby stripes, but I couldn't find a picture of him without them)

Frostfur

[image]

Frostfur was a queen from ThunderClan, but then died. Even though they don't mention her much, I always imagined her as an elegant cat.

I see her as an all white she~cat with medium length fur and blue eyes.

Brindleface

[image]

Brindleface was much more mentioned once she had kits. She was an okay character and was a good mother as well.

I see her as a golden brown she~cat with short fur and yellow eyes.

Goldenflower

[image]

I see Goldenflower as a golden she~cat with medium length fur and light green eyes.

Speckletail

[image] [image]

I imagine Speckletail as a light gray tabby she~cat with green eyes and a white chest and a white belly.

Halftail

[image] [image] [image]

I see Halftail as a dark brown tabby tom with amber eyes and half his tail missing.

Smallear and Patchpelt

[image]
[image]

Smallear-

I see Smallear as a light brown ticked tabby tom with small ears and light green eyes.

Patchpelt-

I see Patchpelt as a black and white tuxedo tom with green eyes.

One-eye and Dappletail

[image]

[image]
[image] [image]

One-eye-

I see One-eye as a white she~cat with short fur and odd eyes. (One amber, one blue)

Dappletail-

I see Dappletail as a dilute calico she~cat with green eyes.

Yellowfang

[image] [image]

YELLOWFANG IS ONE OF MY FAVORITE CHARACTERS! SHE IS SO AMAZING AND I LOVE HER SO SO SO MUCH!!

I see her as a dark gray she~cat with battle scars, medium-long fur and yellow-amber eyes.

(When I first read the first book, I thought Yellowfang was a yellow tabby she~cat. Don't judge me, I was stupid back then. But now I know the truth)

Swiftpaw

[image]

Swiftpaw was pretty cool, and a reble. I felt bad for him when Bluestar didn't make him a warrior.

I see him as a black and white tom with yellow eyes and short fur.

Cinderpelt

[image] [image]

Cinderpelt is one of my favorite characters. She is so cool and when she got run over, I remember being like "TIGERCLAW! YOU ASSHOLE!" So yeah.

I see her as a gray she~cat with short fur and yellow-green eyes. (I know she is supposed to have blue eyes, but I just never imagined her with blue eyes, I don't know.)

Brackenfur

[image] [image]

Brackenfur is a pretty cool character! I ship him with Sorreltail soooo much.

I see him as a golden brown tabby tom with light green eyes.

Cloudtail

[image]

I love Cloudtail! He was a sassy little kit and apprentice. When Brightheart got injured, he helped her, saw her as a gorgeous cat and told her she was beautiful no matter what. I thought that was so great! Now he is one of the most respected warriors in ThunderClan and is also known to be one of the best trackers. What I noticed though, is that when Cloudtail became an apprentice, everyone said that his white pelt would make him easy to see and he was teased for his white fur. However, at the time, there were white furred cats who weren't teased, like Whitestorm and Frostfur. I just thought it was weird.

I see him as an all white tom with very long fur and blue eyes.

Brightheart

[image]

Brightheart is such a cool character! The way she overcame her obstacles was just amazing and she ended up having a mate and kits. When she got mauled by the dogs, I was just like "what...h-how could...this happen to her..." I was very surpised and sad at what happened. Then when she was named Lostface I felt so bad for her. (I still love you Bluestar! ＜3) I felt so happy when she was getting stronger and learning her own way of fighting. Then when Firestar named her Brightheart I was so happy that she got her true warrior name.

I see her as a white she~cat with orange tabby patches, one blue eye, torn ears and many battle scars.

Thornclaw

[image]

I see Thornclaw as an average joe kind of character, but still pretty cool. Every time I hear 'Thornclaw' I can't help but think of him being 'the patrol guy' because of Moonkitti. (If you don't know who that is, look her up on YouTube)

I see him as a golden-brown tabby tom with yellow eyes and short fur.

Ferncloud

[image]

Honestly, I don't get why so many people hate Ferncloud. Sure she isn't one of my favorites, but that doesn't mean I don't like her. A lot of people say they hate her because all she did was have kits and the fact that she had too many kits. I have a problem with this because Sorreltail has had just as many kits as Ferncloud. Does everyone hate Sorreltail to death? No. (I don't hate Sorreltail either, I'm just trying to make a point) I hate it because there was no reason Ferncloud should have been killed off. Just because almost everyone hates her is no reason to kill her off. (No offense to any Ferncloud haters out there, it's just my opinion)

I see her as a spotted gray tabby she~cat with green eyes and short fur.

Ashfur

[image] [image]

A lot of people HATE Ashfur. He's mediocre at best in my book. I don't necessarily like him, but I don't hate him either. Sure he attempted murder on four cats, but he did die in the end. You could make the argument that even though he tried to kill four cats he is in StarClan yet Thistleclaw murdered no one and is in the Dark Forest. I have to admit that this confused me a lot. I also think that Ashfur needs to freaking move on from Squirrelflight. I understand if you're heartbroken and it might take a bit to get over it, but seriously? It takes that long to get over it? And you go crazy because of it? Wow. Either way, I don't hate Ashfur, but I don't like him either.

I see him as a gray tom with short to medium fur and blue-green eyes.

Bramblestar

[image] [image]

Bramblestar isn't one of my favorite characters. I know that a lot of people love him, but I don't know, I guess I didn't really click with him when he was introduced or something. I also feel like his personality just completely revolves around him being Tigerstar's son. Don't get me wrong, he is a good character, but he's just not one of my favorites.

I see him as a muscular dark brown tabby tom with broad shoulders and amber eyes.

Tawnypelt

[image] [image]

Tawnypelt is one of my favorites. She is really cool! I'm glad that she and Bramblestar still communicate and things like that.

I see her as a calico and white she~cat with green eyes and short fur.

Rainwhisker

[image]

Rainwhisker is a pretty decent cat! Yep.

I see him as a gray tom with darker gray patches on his pelt, blue eyes and short fur.

Sootfur

[image]

Sootfur wasn't mentioned that much, but he was still a cool joe.

I see him as a muscular, dark gray tom with darker gray paws, short fur and amber eyes.

Sorreltail

[image]

What can I say? Sorreltail is freaking awesome! She also had amazing kits and a good mate in Brackenfur.

I see her as a calico and white she~cat with amber eyes and medium length fur.

Squirrelflight

[image]

Squirrelflight is one of my favorite characters! She is so awesome! I love her spunk and determination! I just love her and her personality in general.

I see her as a dark ginger she~cat with green eyes, one white paw and short fur.
